- c. to a fine of not more than $10,000.

A Peace Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to issue a violation tag to any person who has contravened any provision of this bylaw.

A violation tag shall be deemed to be sufficiently served if:

- a. served personally on the accused; or,
- b. mailed to the address of the registered owner of the property concerned or to the person concerned; or
- c. served personally upon the manager, secretary, receptionist or other officer or person apparently in charge at any premises of the accused, or by mailing a copy to such accused.

A violation tag shall state:

- a. the name of the person or other information to adequately identify the person;
- b. approximate location of where the offence took place;
- c. the offence;
- d. the penalty for the offence set out on Schedule “A” of the bylaw;
- e. that the penalty shall be paid within (14) fourteen days from the issuance of the violation tag;
- f. any other information deemed necessary by the Chief Administrative Officer or by the provisions of the Act or the Provincial Procedure Act RSA 2000 chapter P-34 as amended.

Where a breach of this bylaw is of a continuing nature, each day on which it continues or is repeated shall constitute a separate offense and shall be liable to a separate penalty.

Where a violation tag has been issued for breach of any provision of this bylaw, the person to whom the violation tag is issued may, in lieu of being prosecuted for the offence, pay to the Village of penalty specified on the violation tag.

Nothing in the bylaw shall prevent a Peace Officer from immediately issuing a violation ticket.

a. if a person upon whom a violation tag is served above fails to pay the voluntary payment within the time specified, a Peace Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to issue a violation ticket pursuant to Part II of the Provincial Offences Procedure Act RSA 2000 Chapter P-34, as amended, or as repealed and replaced from time to time.

b. the person to whom the violation ticket may, in the case of a violation ticket issued pursuant to the Provincial Offences Procedure Act RSA 2000 Chapter P-34, as amended, or as repealed and replaced from time to time, plead guilty by making a voluntary payment in respect to the summons delivering to the Provincial Court, on or before the initial appearance date, the violation ticket together with an amount equal to the specified penalty for the offence as provided for in Schedule “A” to this bylaw.

c. any person who is guilty by way of summary conviction of an offense under the provisions of this bylaw shall be liable for a fine of not less than the amount specified for that particular breach of this bylaw, plus associated court costs pursuant to Part II of the Provincial Offences Procedure Act RSA 2000 Chapter P-34, as amended, or as repealed and replaced from time to time.

Severability

It is the intention of Council that each separate provision of this bylaw shall be deemed independent of all other provisions herein and it is the further intention of Council that if any provision of this bylaw is declared invalid, all other provisions herein shall remain invalid and enforceable.

Repeal of Bylaw
